Re: Glenn Burton, Jr. v. American Cyanamid, et al.
Case No. 07-C-00303
Brionn Stokes v. American Cyanamid, et al.
Case No. 07-C-00865
Ravon Owens v. American Cyanamid, et al.
Case No. 07-C-00441

Dear Judge Adelman:

I'm writing in regard to the three SCHEDULING ORDERS issued by Your Honor in these cases dated March 15th and filed and transmitted on March 16th.

Mr. Earle had written with proposed schedules concerning these cases on March 12th, and by letter of March 15th I wrote on behalf of defendants accepting such dates (with the agreed-upon proviso that the dates for disclosure of "property-specific experts" would be understood to be the date for disclosure of medical, psychological, educational, and vocational experts, as well as property experts).

However, the Orders issued by Your Honor transposed the agreed-upon dates in Owens and Stokes. In other words, all of the dates we agreed upon in Owens wound up in the Stokes Order and all of the Stokes dates we agreed to wound up in the Owens Order. The Burton Order is fine.

I respectfully request that new orders be issued in Owens and Stokes, using the dates agreed to.
